2011-2012 Institutional Student Information Record
Required Signatures for the FAFSA
(Free Application for Federal Student Aid)

The federal processor has notified the Financial Aid Office that required signatures were missing from your 2011-2012 FAFSA. By signing this form the Financial Aid office will report that the required signatures have been provided.

READ, SIGN, AND DATE

If you are a student, by providing a signature for the FAFSA, you certify that you:

1. Will use federal and/or state student financial aid only to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education;
2. Are not in default on a federal student loan or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it;
3. Do not owe money back on a federal student grant or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it;
4. Will notify your school if you default on a federal student loan; and
5. Will not receive a Federal Pell Grant for more than one college for the same period of time.

If you are the parent or the student, by providing a signature for the FAFSA, you agree, if asked, to provide information that will verify the accuracy of your completed form. This information may include your 2010 Federal income tax forms. Also, you certify that you understand that the Secretary of Education has the authority to verify information reported on this application (FAFSA) with the Internal Revenue Service and other Federal agencies. If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined $20,000, sent to prison, or both.

Everyone whose information was given on the FAFSA application must sign below. The student (and at least one parent, if parent information is required) MUST sign below.
