Transparency Reporting

Colleges cannot provide this information since by definition the high school students participating in these programs during 2025-2026 won't receive credit until they matriculate into college.

Utilizating the document “Section 209 Reporting Guidance" the cost is $443 per credit hour based off the MCCDI report total operating expenditures divided by total credit hours reported for 2025-2026 reported by Kirtland Community College. Tuition assessed to students in 2025/2026 was $149 in-district or $225 out-of-district. There was also an option for the high school to purchase an entire general education class or a skilled trades class, rates are based on class purchased.
