

Kirtland Regional Police Academy Five Core Values

P – Professionalism –

The skill, good judgment, and polite behavior that is expected from a person who is trained to do a job well, Professionalism' is commonly understood as an individual's adherence to a set of standards, code of conduct or collection of qualities that characterize accepted practice within a particular area of activity

R – Respect –

People's feelings, regard highly; think much of, a courteous expression (by word or deed) of esteem or regard, treating everyone and everything with care

I - Integrity –

Implies trustworthiness and incorruptibility to a degree that one is incapable of being false to a trust, responsibility, or pledge, firm adherence to a code of especially moral or artistic values

D - Discipline –

Control gained by enforcing obedience or order, orderly or prescribed conduct or pattern of behavior, training that corrects, molds, or perfects the mental faculties or moral character

A – Accountability –

Taking responsibility for your own actions, the state of being accountable, liable, or answerable, the obligation to explain, justify, and take responsibility for one's actions